A Daily Feature in The Herald

This daily news feature of The Washington Herald is for the benefit of everybody interested in motion pictures.

Suggestions, comments, criticisms, inquiries, and questions invited. Address communications to Motion Picture Editor, Washington Herald.

All the members of the City Beautiful, the home of the "Flying A" productions, had a regular "kid" party on a recent long ago. Miss Ida Lewis played hostess and entertained thirty-odd promiscuous kids, some dirty and saucy, others bashful and crying. No bunch of real "kids" could have been more frolicsome and to appreciate the time they had it is almost necessary to have been present, but a list of the guests and their attire will perhaps give a fair idea of the atmosphere.

Nearly all carried toys of some sort, and then they got to quarreling about them. And if it wasn't that it was some other thing. There were rough-and-tumble fights on the middle of the floor, and the girls stole each other's candy. Here is who they were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ricketts, "Shipahoy" and Gretchen; Louise Lester, a baby doll that Calamity Anne had lost; Julius Frankenberg and Vivian Rich, Buster Brown and his sister Mary Jane; Jack Richardson, a freckled-faced boy with a stationery smile; Ed Coxen, a Santa Barbara muchacho from the period of 1900; Harry Von Meter, honeyboy; Mrs. Harry Von Meter and Mr. Graham, the heavenly twins; Charlotte Burton, little girl in blue. All the others were present in their best infantile bobs and tuckers. Lorimer Johnston looked on when he wasn't looking out.

Mary Pickford, accompanied by her mother, has gone to the California studio of the Famous Players Company, where a number of new plays featuring Little Mary will be produced.

A desperate scheme to win a beautiful heiress for his wife is the plot of the powerful Kalem two-part feature production, "The Hunchback." As the result of her carelessness, Marie, little playmate, Johnny, is seriously injured. The doctor declares that the boy will be a hunchback for the rest of his life. Fifteen years later, "Humpty" Johnson, burglar and murderer, learns that Marie, who is now engaged to David Thorpe, has never forgiven herself for her playmate's injury. He hears the girl declare she would do anything to help the boy. Marie has never seen Johnny since the day of the accident. "Humpty" blackmails the girl and later conceives the idea of compelling Marie to marry him. How the villain is foiled and meets his death brings this story to a climax that is unusual and thrilling.

GETTING A START

By NATHANIEL C. FOWLER JR.

LUCK.

LUCK is the result of chance. Success is the product of intention.

What is luck? I don't know, and I don't know anybody who does know.

But luck exists. It is no use to deny that it is a power for good or for evil.

The unsuccessful man claims that luck is against him, and holds luck responsible for his shortcomings. The man of success refuses to recognize luck, because, if he did, it would shock his conceit.

Luck seems to be everywhere and nowhere. It comes from the land of mystery, circulates like an irresponsible comet, dissolves itself, and disappears. It follows no beaten track, and obeys no law. Its composition is unknown, its ways are unreliable. No chemist has analyzed it, no sheriff has caught it, and no jailer has confined it.

Some time somebody will dissect it, and then the world will understand it, but not now, or near now.

No matter if luck plays an important part on the stage of business, or of any other kind of endeavor, it should not, it must not, be depended upon.

If you wait for luck, you are pretty sure not to meet it. The ship never comes in to the loafer on the dock.

Don't depend upon luck. Of all the fool things in the world of folly, taking stock in luck is the

ESPERANTO PROPOSED FOR CATHOLIC CHURCH

Pope Said to Favor Substitute for Latin in Religious Rites.

Rome, Nov. 30.—Esperanto, the great universal tongue which has so many advocates in America as well as in Europe, has made another step forward in the proposal of a large body of Catholics, who have recently arrived here, to adopt it in place of Latin as the language of the Catholic Church.

It is even whispered that when they were admitted to an audience with His Holiness the Pope, he did not tend an entirely deaf ear to the suggestion.

Steady, if slow, progress is being made toward a universal (Roman) pronunciation of the Latin tongue—a consumma-

YELLOW REMAINS CRAZE IN FASHIONABLE GOWNS

Wonderful Mandarin Coat for Wife of Leading Financier of London.

London, Nov. 30.—Yellow is just as popular as ever. It vies with the tango as a craze of the moment.

Mrs. Woodbine-Paris, the well-known financier's wife, has just chosen a lovely mandarin coat, yellow embossed, with huge roses in mother of pearl, soft old rose and dead leaves tint with pattern of smaller roses in gold powdering surface between them.

The material is wonderfully draped, while there is in addition a little tunic of black tulle edged with a line of big diamonds and crystals. The decollete is bordered with the same, as well as the tiny transparent sleeves.

The corsage is likewise of very fine tulle, made in kimono form over a doublet consisting of mandarin embossed satin, while across the bust and under the filmy fabric is an edged-wood-blue scarf which peeps out below the folded sash of black tulle.

The sash is fastened with a bow behind and hangs down in a single end on either side of the hips, the whole being finished with ornaments of crystals, pearls, and long tassels.

COMMUTERS TO PROTEST.

Falls Church Meeting Tomorrow to Discuss Alleged Discrimination.

Second to The Washington Herald.

Falls Church, Va., Nov. 30.—Contending they are discriminated against as to car fare between Falls Church and Washington, local commuters using the lines of the Washington-Virginia Railway will hold a mass meeting in Barber's Hall Tuesday night to voice complaint against existing conditions.

The cheapest a citizen of Falls Church can go to Washington and return is 23-4 cents. This only is possible when a commuter book is bought to the District line, and a car ticket used from the highway or Aqueduct Bridge into the city.

It is the contention of people living here that the railway company has no right to assess them a city ticket in addition to a commuter's ticket.

It is claimed the growth of the suburban towns would be much greater if the rates were lowered.

On Wednesday the Falls Church rate case comes before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

LIVED ON CANDY FOR 56 YEARS.

Woman's Digestive Organs in Perfect Condition at Death.

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 30.—Miss Mary Rock, who died at Chambersburg last week at the age of seventy-three, had lived for fifty-six years of that time on milk, water, coffee and candy alone. She had imagined that she could not eat solid foods. An autopsy made immediately following the woman's death revealed the fact that her digestive organs were in perfect condition and that she might easily have eaten anything she wanted to. Local physicians consider this one of the most remarkable examples of the hypochondriacal condition extant.

When Miss Rock was eighteen years old she one day became much overheated and drank a large quantity of water. She was ill for a time and when she commenced to recover she became afflicted with the belief that her stomach would not hold anything solid. She assimilated the sugary nutriment of candy by sucking it. Miss Rock always had been active.

OWES LIFE TO CHEAP PANTS.

Caught in Machinery, Trimmers Give Way Under the Strain.

Chester, S. Dak., Nov. 30.—The fact that his trousers were of sufficiently flimsy material to not stand the strain saved the life of John Schmidt, a farmer living near town, when his trousers became caught in the machinery while he was elevating a load of corn into a crib.

Had his trousers not given way and released him he would have been seriously injured and in all probability killed. As it was he escaped with a broken ankle bone.
